REPUBLICAN EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE, Wilmington, N. C., April 30, 1874.

The members of the Republican Executive Committee are hereby requested to meet at the City Court Room in session, on Saturday, the 10th day of May, at 11 o'clock A. M., for the transaction of business.

GEO. Z. FRECH, Chm. W. H. GERKIN, Secy.

The Times says Dr. Walpole has lost a beautiful chestnut mare. She died suddenly in harness, it is supposed from bots or pin worms. If the Doctor had used Sheridan's Ointment for Condition Powders, he would, no doubt, have had his mare to-day--they are death on worms.

Chapman's hands are very common with those who have their hands much in water. A few drops of Johnson's Astringent rubbed over the hands two or three times a day, will keep them soft and white. Fishermen, sailors, and others will do well to remember this.

April 30--46 w. l.

The Schooner Mary Wheeler, some time before last Christmas, bound to Elizabeth City from the South, in order to avoid Frying Pan Shoal, passed the main bar of the river, intending to go out at New Inlet. In New Inlet she struck on a sunken blockade runner, and rapidly filled. An anchor was dropped, and the Steamer Waccamaw tried to save her, but at the time the wind blew so heavily that the Waccamaw gave it up. A tug boat was sent to the place where the Mary Wheeler had been, but she had disappeared. About ten days ago the Mary Wheeler was ashore between Dogue and New River Inlet, having been buffeted about on the ocean for more than two months.

MAIL ROBBERY--A HOAX.--In our article in to-day's Post, we promised our readers an account of a heavy mail robbery, that took place at Union Depot, on Saturday night. We had it from an official at the depot, but upon consulting Col. Brink, to ascertain the facts, etc., he astonished us, (as no doubt we have unintentionally astonished our readers,) by conveying to our ears the doleful tale of not a bit of mail robbery, but such it was at the time supposed to have been. It was all a hoax, or, through the neglect of somebody we don't know who; any of the Colonel says, that no robbery was committed, and our readers will have to excuse us when we tell them that at this writing, 1:30 p. m. rain is descending around this, our Post of the day, which to all appearances, as near as we can recollect, very much resembles that experienced by old Noah and his family. But of course we were not there, and can't vouch for the accuracy of our statement, etc.

RAINY morning.

HAVE you voted?

VERY dull to-day.

MONEY! MONEY! is still the cry.

ALL QUIET around the polls. So say the Wise Men from the North.

THE Board of County Commissioners meet in regular session to-night.

Mr. George D. Flack has been appointed a Notary Public for the city.

DEPUTY MORRIS leaves for Raleigh, on Thursday, to convey prisoners to the State Penitentiary.

MR. NATHAN MAYER has been appointed and qualified as Commissioner of Deeds for the State of Georgia.

THE United States District Court, for the District of Cape Fear, convened this morning--Judge Brooks presiding.

THE Rev. W. J. Parkinson preached both at morning and night in Walnut Hall, Brooklyn, on Sunday, to appreciative congregations.

THE members of Stonewall Lodge, Knights of Pythias, are requested to be present at the Lodge to-night, as business of great importance is to be transacted.

ASSISTANT--Capt. Benjamin Swartz, of New York, has been sent here by the Produce Exchange of New York to assist Mr. W. D. Mann, the Supervising Inspector, in the discharge of his duties.

SUNDAY--Yesterday (Sunday) all of our churches were well attended, and several eminent Divines, in attendance on the Lutheran Synod, now in session in this city, occupied the pulpit of a number of our churches.

PUMPS AND CISTERNS.--A friend tells us that there have been four pumps and cisterns constructed North of the line of the W. & W. R. R., within the past three or four weeks; a want which has long been felt in that rapidly growing portion of the city.

INCENDIARISM.--We learn that an attempt was made one day the past week to burn a house on Fifth between Red Cross and Campbell streets, by placing dry sticks, paper, etc., underneath the house, but fortunately it was discovered in time to prevent serious damage.

DR. MORAN.--Rev. R. S. Moran, D. D., pastor of Front Street M. E. Church, will leave this city to-morrow (Tuesday) for Louisville, Ky., whither he goes to be in attendance at the Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. The Doctor will be absent about three weeks, but has made arrangements to have his pulpit supplied during his absence.

DRAMA AND CANTATA TO-NIGHT.--The pupils of St. Paul's German-American Institute, will present the beautiful little drama of Court of Oberon; or "The Three Wishes," at the Opera House to-night, and we hope to see a fine audience, as the entertainment will certainly be deserving of one.

The entertainment will be interspersed with both vocal and instrumental music, and the Cornet Club will lend their aid and assistance.

The price of admission is very low, and we trust that no one will miss the opportunity of witnessing the entertainment thus afforded them to-night.

IMPOSING SERVICES AT ST. THOMAS' CATHOLIC CHURCH.--Yesterday being the occasion of the unveiling of a statue of the Sacred Heart, the services at the Catholic Church were more than usually impressive. A large congregation assembled at the usual hour; a solemn high mass was sung by Rev. Father White, and an eloquent and able discourse was delivered on the lesson of the day, and the devotion to the Sacred Heart, by the Rev. Father Reiley, of Fayetteville.

The statue was constructed in Bavaria, and is a life-size representation of the Savior, with the Sacred Heart exposed upon the breast, and one of the hands pointing to its bleeding surface. The statue presents a very handsome appearance, and is a fine specimen of the art, for which some parts of Europe are so justly celebrated.

At the close of the solemn High Mass, the act of consecration was read by the Rev. Father White, and the services came to a close.

Mayor's Court.

His Honor W. P. CANADAY, Mayor, presiding.

Blue Monday--consequently but one poor fellow made his (doubtful) debut before this court this morning.

He was sentenced to be imprisoned in jail, there to await a hearing before the next term of the Superior Court, and for what--for going (to) (a) (me) (e) (a) (t) (i) (n) (g)--yes, he is to suffer for this--but it was not a meeting, called by the people of God--but a shoulder of mutton--bacon that he purloined away from a shop on Water street.

K. OF P.--The members of the Uniform Lodge, K. of P., are requested to meet at their Castle Hall this evening at 8 o'clock. Every member is expected to be present, as business of importance will be brought before the meeting.

JNO. L. DUDLEY, Chief Division, M. P. TAYLOR, First Assistant.

NEWS.--The question arises, what is news? Well, we don't exactly know--what is news to some is just the contrary to others. If we tell our readers that we have been out collecting to-day, and, like the unlucky fisherman, got scarcely a "bite" or a nibble, some would say that is not news. If we tell you this is blue Monday, and a rainy Monday at that, some would say, oh, bosh, that is no news! If we tell you that an election is progressing to-day, some would say stale news. If we tell you that our Post Office, in the course of time, will be completed, some will say no news. If we tell you that "Old Dally" has not exploded as yet, some will say that is no news. If we tell you that a splendid entertainment will be given at the Opera House to-night, some will say, and still no news, because we read Saturday's issue of the Post. If we tell you that a murderer is to pay the death penalty on the 18th day of June, some will say no news, and some will say sad news. If we tell you that in fact we have been searching for news the entire morning all over our muddy, sloshy, and sandy streets, some will say no news; but, ah, if we tell you by glancing in this or some other column of to-day's Post, you will see an account of another mail robbery at Union Depot, on Saturday night last, you all (with the exception of a few) will say, ah, now we have news! And so did the robbers, who carried the mail bags off have news upon top of news--news by the bag full--news here and news there--more news than they know what to do with, we venture to assert. We want news, but none of that, if you please. Now, let the man step to the front who dares, and say we have not hit the "nail on the head," and we'll--well we'll--just hit that man on the head with a "shooting stick or mallet," and learn him better matters than to criticize this, our first attempt, at composing a poem--news poem.

THE Bay of All Beauties. Rio de Janeiro well deserves the appellation of the "bay of all beauties." It presents a view which always offers some new scene of beauty and enchantment. From being surrounded by high mountains, whose peaks tower above the clouds, and having a very narrow entrance, it was known among the Indian tribes, who owned the whole of country before they were conquered by the hardy cavaliers of Spain, as "The Hidden Water." It is a small Mediterranean sea, and what is fabled of the entrance to that sea is partly true of this, for here at the mouth stands one of the pillars of Hercules, the great Sugar-loaf mountain, one thousand feet high, inclining over a little, like the leaning tower of Pisa. At its base crouch, like huge mastiffs, the batteries of San Jose and San Theodosia, while on the opposite side stands the frowning fortress of Santa Cruz, like some grim sentinel. There are several other forts which guard the entrance to this beautiful bay.

Language of the Clouds. The color of the sky at particular times afford wonderfully good evidence. Not only does a rosy sunset presage fair weather and a ruddy sunrise, but there are other tints which speak with equal clearness and accuracy. A bright yellowish sky in the evening indicates wind; a pale yellow, wet; a neutral gray color constitutes a favorable sign in the evening, and an unfavorable one in the morning. The clouds are full of meaning in themselves. If their forms are soft, undefined and feathery, the weather will be fine. If the edges are hard, sharp and definite, it will be foul. Generally speaking, any deep, unusual lines between wind and rain, while the more quiet and delicate tints bespeak fair weather.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 4. The Senate, on motion of Mr. Pease, passed a resolution requesting the House of Representatives to return to the Senate the bill passed a few days ago appropriating ninety thousand dollars for the relief of persons suffering from the overflow on the Mississippi river. Mr. Pease said that he would move to increase the appropriation when the bill should be returned. In the House, a large number of bills were introduced and referred.

OHIO.

CINCINNATI, May 4. Archbishops McClosky of New York, Bailey of Baltimore, and Wood of Philadelphia; Bishops McClosky of Louisville, O'Connor of Philadelphia, and Revs. James O'Reilly and A. J. McDonough of Philadelphia, have arrived here to attend the convocation of Roman Catholic Bishops this week.

ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, May 4. The Eastern bound train and the Atlantic Express were unswitched near Plymouth, Indiana. Several were hurt and a baggage, mail and three other cars were burned.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, May 4. To-day nearly 900 Italians got vaccinated in consequence of a number of cases of small pox being reported among their countrymen.

CABLE DISPATCHES.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, May 4. The Queen will probably visit Ireland next autumn with the Duke and Duchess of Edinburgh.

A special dispatch from Santander to the Times says a deputation of volunteers from Bilbao visited General Concha, who had been operating in the rear of the insurgents and informed him that the Carlists had retired. Concha immediately communicated the intelligence to Serrano, and the latter replied by telegraph granting to Concha the honor of first entering Bilbao.

A decree has been issued in Madrid calling for a levy of all persons liable to military duty, and over 19 years of age.

SPAIN.

MADRID, May 4. Marshal Serrano entered Bilbao on Saturday.

There is great rejoicing here over the deliverance of the city.

On Saturday evening there was a general illumination.

The municipality have sent congratulatory despatches to Marshal Serrano by General Concha.

Small detached parties of Carlists are surrendering to the Republicans, but the main body of the insurgents have retreated in great disorder in the direction of Guipuzcoa.

An attempt was made yesterday to assassinate Senor P'y Margall. The man who is as yet unknown, fired twice at him without effect, and then shot and killed himself.

What Alcohol Will Do.

It may seem strange, but it is nevertheless true, that alcohol, regularly applied to a thrifty farmer's stomach, will remove the boards from the fence, let cattle into his crops, kill his fruit trees, mortgage his farm, and sow his fields with wild oats and thistles. It will take the paint off his building, break the glass out of the windows and fill them with rags. It will take the gloss from his clothes and the polish from his manners, subdue his reason, arouse his passions, bring sorrow and disgrace upon his family, and topple him into a drunkard's grave. It will do this to the artisan and the capitalist, the maroon and the maiden, as well as to the farmer; for, in its deadly enmity to the human race, alcohol is as respectful of persons.

Pennsylvania, as is generally known, takes its name from William Penn, the word "sylvania" meaning woods. Eli Love of Wayne county, Ohio, climbed a tree to shake out a coon. The coon heard something drop and went for it, but it was not the coon. It was Eli.

STATE ITEMS.

There are 16 Quaker schools in North Carolina.

Corn is called dear in Newbern at 85 cents a bushel.

Hon. S. F. Phillips, Solicitor of the Treasury, is in Raleigh.

Mr. W. R. Cochran, of Charlotte, has two Spanish coins, aged respectively 161 and 156 years.

Thirty-one couples received marriage licenses in Mecklenburg county during the month of April.

The Spirit of the South says: We are gratified to be able to state that the building of the third cotton factory in this vicinity is now a fixed fact. Our esteemed townsman, Mr. James H. Aycock, informs us that he has secured a valuable site on Hitchcock creek, some three-fourths of a mile below the Great Falls Factory, and will proceed, without delay, to erect a factory of 3,000 spindles. Mr. A. proposes to manufacture cotton yarns only.

WAIFS.

What was Joan of Arc made of?--She was Maid of Orleans.

Children fed on New York milk require no chalk mixture.

"Goin' thro' the rye" is suggested as a song for the female temperance crusaders.

It is true that one swallow doesn't make a Summer, but it comes summers near it.

Any candidate for office in Omaha who wears a shirt collar is considered a bloated aristocrat.

A Yankee wanted the Bridge of Sighs pointed out to him, and then offered to bet America had several bridges twice the size.

Thought for a schoolboy's theme; beauty and baseness are often united; yet the loveliest maiden is admired for her cheek.

A Georgia clergyman has thirty-two children, and his parishioners object to his having four pews without paying for them.

A grave elder in an English church forbade the banns of a certain young couple because he had "intended Hannah for himself."

Instead of saying "It's a long time between drinks," Western men now remark, "It's a long time since I signed my last pledge."

A fop, in company, wanting his servant called out, "Where's that blockhead of mine?" "On your shoulders, sir," said a lady.

A Canadian matron, one hundred and eight years old, is still able to devote much energy to bringing up her little boy, aged ninety-three.

A Western member of Congress who interpreted M. C. to mean More Currency, was made to understand that it meant Mighty Conupt.

A Western editor apologised for the deficiency of the first edition of his paper by saying he was detained at home by a second edition in his family.

Boston pays one hundred and forty-two thousand dollars a year for church music, when congregations stand ready to sing without charging a cent.

The Literary World intimates that H. W. Beecher is not a good punctuator; but nobody can deny that he makes some of his points admirably.

The Courier-Journal allows its proof reader to go to prize fights, on steamboat excursions, down in mines and up in balloons, but it can't kill him.

La Mothe was not a great writer, but he understood human nature. Finding that his book had a slow sale, he procured a prohibition against the reading of it, and every copy was disposed of.

The Western editor who asks if confessing one's self a donkey is a curious confession, has met his quietus from a brother of the goose-quill, who reminds the former that nobody should know better than he.

Of all jokes, says the Salem Gazette, that of the legislature passing a law to prevent young men under eighteen from hurting themselves by overwork, is the greatest. Won't Young America enjoy the laugh?

A Cincinnati seamstress uses a gray squirrel as a motive power for running her machine, and well he does his work--not only sewing straight seams, but hemming and gathering a ruffle as neatly as could be done by human hands.

A Western paper says dealers in butter classify it as wool grease, cart grease, soap grease, variegated, tasselled, cow grease, boarding-house breakfast, inferior tub, common tub, medium roll, good roll, and gilt-edge roll. The terms are strictly technical.

A man went into a butcher's shop, and, finding the owner's wife in attendance, in the absence of her husband, thought he would have a joke at her expense, and said: "Madame, can you supply me with a yard of pork?" "Yes, sir," said she. And then, turning to a boy she added: "James, give that gentleman three pig's feet."
